

Dear FCC, I would very much appreciate it if you would leave Wisconsin do not call list the way it is. If I change banks or credit cards its for a reason (like these horrible high interest rates on credit cards lately) and do not want to be hassled by these annoying phone calls. Why don't you listen to the public for a change instead of the many lobbyists that our government officials cave into time after time. Thank You K. Tetzlaff